Overview

The Pilotto side loading towel rail is a modern and stylish design. Made from stainless steel the Pilotto is perfect for high-moisture areas such as bathrooms and kitchens. 15mm x 30mm horizontal tubes with side loading access provide excellent hanging space. There are 3 sizes to choose from with wall brackets supplied as standard.

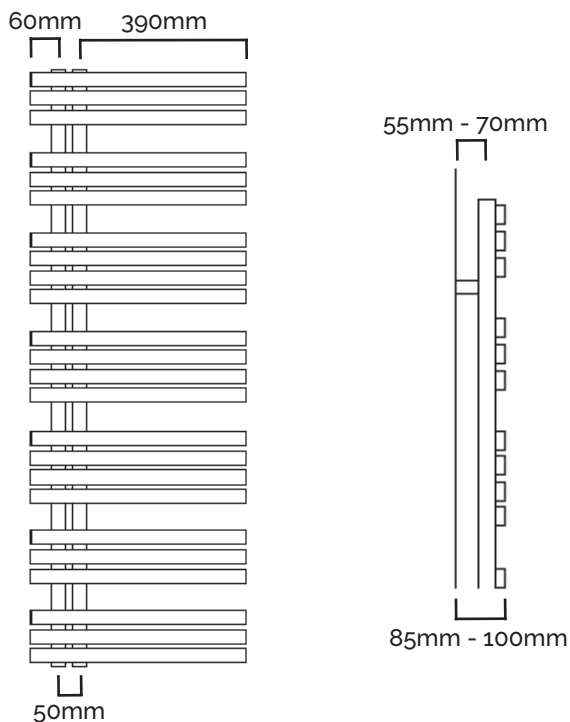

Manufactured and tested to BS EN442, the Pilotto is hand finished in a polished stainless steel as standard and is also available in satin stainless steel finish, all covered by a 10-year guarantee.

Easy to install, the Pilotto towel rail suits any modern or contemporary interior, and would make a great addition to your bathroom, kitchen or utility room.
